

TESTIMONIALS

"I can honestly say that it (your presentation) was among the best we've held at the library, and by far the most well-organized and professional one. You really should either write a book or give presentations on how to organize and present lectures!"

Laura Dudnik, Evanston Public Library

"You both did a great job! My phone rang all evening – members calling to say what a memorable presentation you gave."

Ruth Kerzisnik, Bohemian Woman's Civic Club, Cicero

"The audience was totally captivated by your presentation, and how interesting that there were audience members with connection to the Eastland."

Terri Meyer, Ela Area Public Library

"Your presentation was the best I have ever heard. An excellent, wonderful learning experience."

Ann Stachurst, Chicago Heights, Illinois

"Thank you so much for the spectacular program last Saturday. The presentation was professional and very interesting. I've never seen an audience so quiet and mesmerized as by your presentation."

Susan Dennison, Highland Park Public Library

"Your program on the Eastland Disaster was excellent, informative, interesting and very well received. The audience seemed to hang on every word and contribute their own stories with added fascination. I commend all of you for starting your historical society to preserve this little known part of Chicago's history that should be a significant story...I certainly will recommend it!"

Anne Feeney, Glenview Public Library

"The...interest in the Eastland Disaster is apparent with our standing-room only attendance."

Marie Kiernan, Algonquin Area Public Library

TESTIMONIALS

"I heard such wonderful accounts of your presentation at the Mt. Prospect Public Library."

Jill Weigel, Chicago Public Library

"Many thanks for the wonderful program you and your family gave on "The Eastland Disaster" in February. The resident feedback here at Luther Village was very positive. Both the content and the style of your presentation were of the highest quality. "

Patsy Biddinger, Luther Village, Arlington Heights

"WOW! Your presentation was superb! Both the program and the exhibit here at the library were well presented, informative, and visually appealing. I am so pleased that we had such a great audience."

Candice Biancalana, Cook Memorial Library, Libertyville

"Your presentation yesterday afternoon was superb! Following the program, many people commented on what an interesting program you gave, and again today, as people return to the Library, they have been complimenting your multi-media presentation. For many in the audience, the program presented a very personal portrayal of family background and a very important part of Chicago's history."

Nancy Brothers, Morton Grove Public Library

"Your presentation was flawless and fascinating."

Stephenie Todd, Oswegoland Heritage Association

"Thank you for the wonderful program that you presented two weeks ago. I've had several comments since on the high quality of your lecture and slide presentation."

Melissa Rice, Frankfort Public Library

"Just wanted to let you know that registration is at 115 for your presentation tomorrow night! We limit to 100, but there are 15 on the waiting list. Obviously we are excited for this!"

Sue Bailey, Tinley Park Public Library
