- A surprise Commemorative 100th Anniversary gift

Level 2

$1 per victim ($844)

A very limited quantity of this unique item is available – only 4 sets will ever exist (our dear friend and colleague, George Hilton, author of "Eastland: Legacy of the Titanic," passed away on August 9, 2014).

Level 4

$1 per ticket to the picnic ($7,000)

- All of the benefits listed in the left column, plus:
- A private 3-hour event with EDHS Executive Director Ted Wachholz and EDHS Co-Founders Susan Decker and Barbara Decker Wachholz (both granddaughters of a survivor). Explore the historic McCormick Bridgehouse & Chicago River Museum while enjoying your choice of breakfast (includes witnessing – from inside the museum – the massive gears turning to open the Michigan Avenue Bridge), or a pizza and beer party over the lunch or dinner hour. This unique, private opportunity is for your family/group only and is good for up to 30 people.

Level 5

$10 per year victim ($8,440)

- All of the benefits listed in the left column, plus:
- 3-in-1! Start your late morning with a private 1-hour behind-the-scenes tour of rarely seen artifacts in the Chicago History Museum's collection archives. The Museum's Executive Vice President, Russell Lewis, will be your gracious host. After the tour, a sit-down lunch awaits your group, catered by the Museum's North & Clark Café. Your afternoon culminates with a chartered trip to a local Chicago brewery. EDHS Board Member Liz Garibay, owner of History On Tap and the creative genius behind The 844 Commemorative Beer bottling this past summer, will fill the tour with fun and interesting facts. Your chartered transportation will return you to your parked car at the Chicago History Museum. This unique opportunity is for your family/group only and is good for up to 8 people.
